PEARLTHOUGHTS

INTERNSHIP CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Mr. Aditya Kumar Prasad has completed an internship at PearlThoughts.

1. Stream: DevOps
2. Duration: 03.12.2025 to 27.02.2026

During this period, he gained hands-on experience in DevOps practices, including setting up and managing CI/CD pipelines, cloud infrastructure, and automation workflows. He worked with tools such as version control systems, containerization technologies, and cloud platforms to support application deployment and monitoring. He also contributed to infrastructure optimization, troubleshooting deployment issues, improving system reliability, and collaborating with the development team to streamline delivery processes. His work demonstrated strong learning ability, problem-solving skills, and a good understanding of DevOps principles and best practices.

We wish him success in all future endeavors.

Sincerely,

PearlThoughts,

Parvathi Devi
